

Contents

Editor's Choice

- 442 Whispers of immortality

Frontiers

- 443 The month in research
Africa, troublesome genes, and treating pemphigus

Editorials

- 444 25 years of AIDS
A leading expert summarises the first quarter century
- 445 The long war
Treatment and prevention strategies to stop the AIDS pandemic
- 446 HIV transmission as a crime
Prosecutions might make things worse

News

- 447 Testing times
Effective antiretrovirals could prompt routine screening for AIDS
- 448 Roll out and deliver
AIDS in Brazil
- 449 Newsbites
Student debt, access to drugs, and WHO

Education

- 450 A brief history of AIDS
By the scientist who co-discovered HIV
- 454 ABC of wound healing: Infections
Part of the ever popular series
- 456 Picture quiz: Circular shadows in lung field
What's the diagnosis?

Paper Plus

- 458 Prophylaxis for tuberculosis in children with HIV: randomised control trial
A trial using isoniazid to prevent TB explained

Careers

- 460 Mums in medicine
Combining motherhood with becoming a medic
- 465 Back to Pakistan
Changes to UK visa rules mean many international medical graduates may go home

- 466 Acute medicine
The career prospects of this subspecialty explained

People

- 468 The art of medicine
An illustrious medical illustrator

Life

- 470 Positive practice
On HIV positive doctors
- 472 Letters from my cousin
Losing someone to HIV in Africa
- 475 On the frontline: Fighting AIDS in a conflict zone
Treating AIDS in the heart of Africa

- 476 Should we all be anthropologists?
Social paradigms surrounding HIV/AIDS
- 478 "You are HIV positive"
An HIV positive medical student describes what happened next

Reviews

- 481 Three Needles, the South Asian tsunami, and casual sex

Eyespy

- 484 The latest quirky medical stories